

TRIBUNE

RESOURCES

Shallow Lease Operator

Primarily but not limited to pumping and checking producing and injection wells.

- Checking producing wells and knowing if they are pumping or not.
- Need to be able to set times to make sure wells are pumping to optimize production but not over pumping and causing undo fatigue on well and pumping equipment.
- Need to have basic trouble shooting skills on equipment and electric system.
- Need to be able to gauge tanks and read meters in order to keep production numbers accurate.
- Do morning and weekly report on computer and on paper.
- Change electrical fuses and have to use the proper PPE.
- Monitor water pumps and line pressures on injection system.
- Keep maintenance up on pumping units and water pumps, changing gear oil, greasing pumps and equipment, etc.
- Change belts on pumping units.
- Change motors on pumping units.
- Help contractors change bearings and level pumping units.
- Monitor pipeline and electric right of ways.
- Walking lines jurisdictional and otherwise.
- Testing and draining containments.
- Mowing facilities and well pads.
- Changing injection filters.
- Doing well inspections, these have to be done once a year for WV DEP.
- Follow all safety rules and make sure they have the proper PPE for each task.
- Need to have an understanding of our system and be able to make decisions in case of emergency on shutting valves.
- Doing routine maintenance such as but not limited to packing stuffing boxes and replumbing flow lines.